LTC celebrates Literacy Week

Lincoln Trail College celebrated National Adult Education and Family Literacy Week, Sept. 23 to 29, with a field trip to the Crawford County Historical Museum and a presentation by GED alumna Lacey Miller.

Miller, who is currently pursuing a nursing degree, discussed the ups and downs of her educational journey which ultimately led to her completing her GED. She encouraged current GED students to believe in themselves while taking small steps toward reaching their individual goals.

The National Adult Education and Family Literacy Week is dedicated by Congress for the purposes of raising public awareness of adult education and family literacy, assisting adult learners in need of literacy services, leveraging local resources, and supporting increased access to adult education and family literacy programs.

LTC offers adult basic skill and GED preparation classes each semester. New classes will begin Oct. 14. To register, or for more information, call 618-544-8657, ext. 1134.
