Homecoming Royalty

LTC theater presents 'My Fair Lady'

Tickets for LTC's production of "My Fair Lady" are currently on sale for performances at 7 p.m. March 25, 26, April 1 and 2 and 2 p.m. March 27.

The production will feature Lonnie Devin as Henry Higgins; Kathleen Moore, Eliza Doolittle; Steven Bruce, Col. Pickering; Ken Strieby, Alfred. P. Doolittle; Benjamin Kennedy, Freddy Eynesford-

Hill; and Antje Pippin, Mrs. Pierce.

Director Barbara Shimer stated, "This classic musical is so full of fun and great music. We hope to introduce this well-loved story and the wonderful songs to a whole new generation."

To purchase tickets, or for more information, call the Performing Arts Office at 618-544-8657, ext. 1433.

SNA hosts annual Basket Binga fundraiser

Student Nurses' Association will host Basket Binga at 6 p.m. April 15 in the cafeteria.

Tickets, $10 in advance or at the door, are available from SNA members or by calling 618-544-8657, ext. 1151. Refreshments will be available for purchase. Doors open at 5 p.m.

The group is selling tickets for a Longaberger Mother's Day purse. Raffle items will also be awarded the night of the bingo.

Telecom & MSS Job Fair

The LTC Telecommunications Technology and Microcomputer Support Specialist programs will host the annual Job Fair April 27 at the H.L. Crisp Educational Center.

The event is open to LTC-Wabash Valley College Telecommunications and LTC MSS graduates. To register, call Becky Coomer at 618-544-8252.

Student honors night planned

LTC will host its annual Student Recognition Program at 7 p.m. April 27 in the Zwermann Arts Center Theater.

Invited students will be recognized for academic excellence, outstanding classroom performance, and club participation. Foundation scholarship recipients for 2010-2011 will also be recognized.

Prior to the recognition program, Phi Theta Kappa Honorary Society will have its initiation ceremony for new members at 6 p.m. in the theater.

Sanitation and safety/refresher offered

LTC will offer a sanitation and safety class and refresher course (RST 1601) March 16 to April 27.

The course, taught by Tammy Smith, will be offered from 6 to 8:40 p.m. Wednesdays. Course emphasis will be on the causes and prevention of foodborne illness in all phases of the flow of food through the food service operation. Accident prevention, emergency action and crisis management will be highlighted. This course meets the Illinois Department of Public Health requirements for classroom instruction in specific food safety areas. Upon completion, eligible students will be able to take the Illinois State Exam for Sanitation and Safety certification. The first two class sessions will be for anyone needing required hours to meet refresher license certification.

For more information, or to register, call Admissions at 618-544-8657, ext. 1126.

SCUBA

Learn the basics of exploring underwater during one of two sessions of SCUBA offered in March at LTC. These hands-on courses feature the use of a portable breathing device and tank for free-swimming divers. Students can choose to attend the March 19 or 26 session. Both meet from 9 to 11:30 a.m. in the LTC pool. Students must be at least 10 years of age. Class fee is $35. To register, call Community Service at 618-544-8657, ext. 1130.

Basic auto care course offered at RHS

Wonder why your engine light comes on? How to check your tire pressure?

If you're on the road a lot or just want to save some money in future repairs, LTC has the class for you this spring.

Dave Holubek will teach Basic Auto Care from 6 to 10 p.m. March 23 and 24 in the Robinson High School Auto Shop. The class, worth 0.5 credit hours, will include instruction in basic car systems and care, as well as how to respond in emergency situations.

To register, or for more information, contact Admissions at 618-544-8657, ext.

1126. For more information on LTC, visit www.iecc.edu/ltc, www.facebook.com/lincolntrailcollege or www.twitter.com/ltc\_il.

Telecom provides fiber optics cert class

LTC telecommunications lead instructor Chris Teague led a three-day Fiber Optics Association certification class in February.

The three-day course provided students with a working knowledge of fiber optics in general. Students learned hands-on skills in working with various aspects of fiber optics.

Additionally, the course prepared students for the Fiber Optic Association (FOA)

Certified Fiber Optic Technician (CFOT) certificate. This certification is recognized internationally as the standard in fiber optics and earning it may translate into improved job opportunities and higher pay rates in industries such as petroleum, ethanol plant, telecommunications, cable television, education, automotive, and even mining as many coal mines are now working with fiber optics.

Digital photography class offered this spring

Learn how to master your point-and-shoot camera during LTC's April 14 digital photography course.

Digital Photography (EDU 2198) will meet from 6 to 9:30 p.m. April 14 and 21. The course will cover basic camera operations, such as macro and super macro, ISO, aperture, shutter speed, lighting, nature photography, and portrait photography. An interest in photography is a must.

To register, call Admissions at 618-544-8657, ext. 1126. Also visit LTC at www.facebook.com/lincolntrailcollege and www.twitter.com/ltc\_il.

PINK OUT

LTC promoted breast cancer awareness by hosting a "pink out" during its Feb. 19 basketball contests against Olney Central College. Those attending the games were encouraged to wear pink to honor breast cancer survivors and warriors. Proceeds and monetary donations benefited the Kay Yow/Women's Basketball Coaches Association Cancer Fund in partnership with The V Foundation.

Do-it-yourself with a new home repair course

If your home is overdue for a redo, Lincoln Trail College has the course for you.

During this hand-on home repair course, offered from 6 to 10 p.m. March 31 and April 14, instructor Carla Watson will teach students the basics of painting, tiling, landscaping and home project planning. Additionally, students will learn how to do a drywall patch and other handy fix-it projects.

To register, call Admissions at 618-544-8657, ext. 1126. Also visit LTC at www.facebook.com/lincolntrailcollege and www.twitter.com/ltc\_il.
