LES MISERABLES

Jolie Finkbiner, as Fantine, reacts to an overzealous Bamatabois, played by Chris Jansen, during LTC's production of "Les Miserables."

New financial aid lead named

Aaron White of Robinson has been hired as the new financial aid coordinator at Lincoln Trail College.

White previously taught remedial English and GED prep courses at the college. Prior to his positions at LTC, he was a graduate assistant at Eastern Illinois University, a special education paraprofessional at Nuttall Middle School, and a personal tutor.

The new coordinator earned an associate's degree from LTC, a bachelor's degree in English from EIU and a master's degree from EIU.

As the new financial aid coordinator, White will be responsible for developing and implementing guidelines and procedures for administering the financial assistance program, coordinating the veterans' assistance program, packaging financial aid awards, and coordinating the student work study program.

Triathlon prep under way

Lincoln Trail College and Ecton Hardware are currently planning the Crawford County Triathlon to be conducted this fall.

A 175-meter swim will kick off the event at 8 a.m. Sept. 6 in the LTC pool. It will be followed by a 12-mile bicycle ride and a 3-mile run. The competition is limited to 150 swimmers who will compete in the following male and female age groups: 18 to 29, 30 to 39, 40 to 49, 50 to 59, and 60 and older. Participants may compete individually or as a team.

Individual entry fee (which includes a Dri-Fit T-shirt) is $60 in advance or $75 after Aug. 1. Team entries are $75 or $85 after Aug. 1. Entry forms – available at 618-544-8657, ext. 1122, email quickr@iecc.edu; Ecton Hardware at 618-

Chemistry Lab Donation

Thanks to a donation by Marathon Illinois Refinery, the LTC chemistry lab is in the process of a major update. Among the donated items were: lab hoods, overhead projector and projection screen, countertop, flammable cabinets, copper and stainless tubing, eye wash stations and more.

Student earns black belt

LTC martial arts student Jalyne Logan of Robinson recently earned her first-degree black belt in the Korean art of Tae Kwon Do. To earn the rank, a student must perform required forms, kicks and board-breaking techniques.

To register for LTC martial arts courses, or for more information, call (618) 544-8657, ext. 1427.

Instructor chosen to present at conference

LTC music instructor Jeshua Franklin has been invited to present at the National Association for Music Education's national in-service conference this fall in Nashville.

Franklin will focus on rehearsal pedagogy for choral directors at this professional development conference for music educators of all levels from around the nation. His presentation is titled "Choral Rehearsing around the Wheel of Pedagogy: Increasing Rehearsal Effectiveness and Student Learning through Layered Instruction."

NAfME, among the world's largest arts education organizations, is the only association that addresses all aspects of music education. NAfME advocates at the local, state and national levels; provides resources for teachers, parents and administrators; hosts professional development events; and offers a variety of opportunities for students and teachers.
