With the help of the other girls in the orphanage, Annie escapes to the wondrous and magical world of New York City.

In adventure after fun-filled adventure, Annie foils Miss Hannigan's evil schemes and befriends President Franklin Delano Roosevelt.

She finds a new home and family in billionaire Oliver Warbucks, his personal secretary Grace Farrell, and a lovable mutt named Sandy.

Class offers tips for using iPads

Looking for tips on how to use your iPad? Olney Central College is offering an 8-week class designed to help both new and current users get the most from their iPads.

The class, EDU 2198 Topics/Issues in Education (iPad), will meet from 6 to 7:50 p.m. on Tuesdays, beginning March 11.

Instructor Brittany Bass will be showing participants how to navigate the iPad as well as teaching them how to search for and download apps. During the course, students also will learn how to connect the iPad to other equipment.

"This is a good class to take if you want to become more comfortable using the iPad or if you are thinking about purchasing one," Bass said. "We will start with the basics and move on to more advanced skills so by the end of the class the students will feel comfortable doing almost anything with the iPad."

Bass requests students bring their iPads with them to class, however an iPad isn't required to take the course.

For more information or to register, contact the Student Services Office at 395-7777.

The public is invited to help complete the unfinished artwork on display in the Anderson Library Gallery. The display will run through the end of March.

Public invited to 'Finish My Drawing'

A new exhibit entitled "Finish My Drawing," is currently on display in the Anderson Library Gallery.

The art show features unfinished artwork which Instructor Michael Conn invites the public to complete.

Recently there has been a move on behalf of some art practitioners to take their work and working methods in more civic-minded spheres, Conn said. Artists are enacting their works thinking about the idea of the "public" as medium.

"This project is an attempt to engage the public with art through the making process," he said. "With this endeavor, I am deeply interested in the notion of authorships, ownership and community."

Conn added, "It does not matter if the public has art experience or not. What is important is engagement and confrontation with art. Hopefully a pedagogical experience will occur – one that is meaningful in all contexts."

The display will run through the end of March.

Student Senate Talent Show March 28

The OCC Student Senate will host a Talent Show at 7 p.m. on Thursday, March 28 in the Dr. John D. Stull Performing Arts Center.

Tickets are available in the Student Services Office or from Student Senate members. Tickets are $5 for adults and $3 for children 10 and younger. For more information, contact Student Senate Advisor Michael Conn in Room 201A or by email at connm@iecc.edu.
